Reimagine recruitment

We help you to overcome recruitment challenges and significantly reduce the cost per hire.

If you want to benefit from our fully funded service to bring a pool of suitable candidates with the skills you need through your door, get in touch today.

We'll also talk you through gaining access to post-employment support, including career progression training at no cost, so new hires and existing staff stay highly motivated in their role and able to deliver on their objectives.

We find the best candidates to meet your business needs

Step 1

We meet with you to better understand your business objectives and hiring needs.

Step 2

We set up meet the employer sessions and provide insight sessions for potential hires.

Step 3

We source, sift, and train candidates to bring a pool of suitable skills to selection days.

Step 4

We provide additional experienced resource to support the interview process.

Step 5

We deliver post-employment support for new hires and provide training for existing staff.

Customer satisfaction drives us

"When you open a new store, the turnaround is exceptionally tight so being able to rely on the Employer Engagement team to recruit new staff quickly and efficiently was a weight off my mind.

"They exceeded expectations; we interviewed 15 applicants on the day and offered 15 contracts."

Rely on us

We'll get to know your business and design a service that meets your needs.

Whether you are a large or small employer, like a distributor looking to fill multiple shop floor vacancies, or on the hunt for a specific skill, like a chef or an accountant, our job is to match you with the best fit.

Remain in control

The Restart Scheme is fully funded meaning it's a no-cost and obligation-free service.

This leaves you to focus on reinvesting money where it really matters without being tied in. You can tell us what pre-employment training would be useful, and we'll deliver it, with the cost on us.

Retain staff

Our initial work cultivates a more productive, engaged workforce, resulting in reduced staff turnover.

But our support doesn't stop when the candidate starts! We've built strong local partnerships so that new employees can access relevant in-work training and mentoring.

Revive your workforce

We do all the hard work of setting expectations and getting candidates job ready, meaning a happier workforce.

Our Meet the Employer and Sector Insight sessions prepare jobseekers for working with you; whilst pre-work training and trial placements kickstarts employee integration into your workplace, prior to their start date.

Reduce duplication

Avoid repeated conversations. We are a single point of contact to a wider pool of talent from numerous employment providers.

Better yet, we remove the repetitive administrative burden of onboarding new starters by facilitating group interviews, screening and pre-employment assessments.
