Your employer must allow you 20% of your normal working hours to complete off-the-job training (which includes e.g. face-to-face events, relevant meetings, projects, updating your portfolio, etc.). You will need to record the 20% off-the-job hours regularly, at least once per month.

You may find it useful to read the 'Day in the Life of a SBPA' which provides examples of activities that count towards the 20% commitment.

How will I be assessed?

Providing you are continuing to work in a suitable role, your new employer may agree to your continuation and fund the remaining costs from their levy.

What if I have to suspend studying due to ill-health or other circumstances beyond my control?

You may be able to defer (or suspend) your studies for up to a year, depending upon circumstances.

What if I become pregnant once I have started the programme?

You will be able to defer (known as a Break in Learning) from the programme for up to a year.

How will the training be delivered?

Predominantly online and in the workplace, but with a face-to-face workshop at the start of all units (there are 5 x one-day regional face-to-face workshops in total, with Marketing & Infrastructure being combined in one workshop). A facilitator and coach will help guide your learning. You will have up to 7 meetings with your coach, plus additional phone contact if required. Your coach will discuss your progress and can advise on your portfolio.

Please note that, whilst your learning will be guided, with support from your facilitators (at the workshops and online) and your coach, you will be expected to work through the learning materials via our online learning platform.

Each unit you study will have a start and end date and you may have one or two milestones during the unit, but aside from these it will be up to you to determine the pace at which you study and the amount of additional reading you do. This may be a different style of learning to your previous experience and it relies on your own motivation to succeed. You will also upload the evidence you gather to an online portfolio, which shows your progress through the apprenticeship.

Where will the training be delivered?

The main cohort groups will be based around the country, with typically two regional centres per cohort. A centrally-located venue will be decided, based on the locations of all apprentices in a group, to minimise travel and the need for overnight stays for the majority, as much as possible. Your reviews and coaching support, etc., will be at your place of work.

Do I have to attend every training event and assessment?

Yes, 100% attendance is mandatory. It is your responsibility to make arrangements to ensure you have a 100% attendance record.

Will I be given time off work in order to study? (20% off-the-job requirement)

The programme will contain a minimum of 20% off-the-job training. This will include shadowing, reading industry articles/research, attending workshops, completing a project and preparing/building your portfolio, etc.

What if I work part-time?

You are still eligible to join the programme; however, if you work fewer than 30 hours per week then the length of time in which you study will be extended, pro rata, to reflect your normal working hours.

Note that apprenticeship funding is managed by the Education and Skills Funding Agency (ESFA), the Government agency accountable for funding education and skills for children, young people and adults. As an apprenticeship training provider our activities have to adhere to ESFA guidance and requirements. Many of the required onboarding documents and forms are necessary to meet ESFA requirements.
