

Are you facing redundancy, or have you been made redundant within the last three months?

The Skills Support for Redundancy programme is here to help you to access funded training that enables you to upskill or retrain and get back into the workforce. The programme is co-financed by the Education & Skills Funding Agency and European Social Fund, which means that you can access a wide range of training for free.

HOW COULD THE SKILLS SUPPORT FOR REDUNDANCY PROGRAMME HELP YOU?

- We can provide you with free training courses and qualifications to help you learn new skills and get back into work
- Our team will link you to the support you need to make the right career choice for you
- The service will help you understand your existing skills and match them to new careers

A wide range of training is on offer through our network of expert training providers including:

IT and digital skills • Business administration • Customer service

Team leading and project management • Health and social care

Warehousing and storage • Communication • Starting your own business

WHO'S ELIGIBLE?

Aged 16 or above and able to work in the UK

Employed and at risk of redundancy, or unemployed within the last three months due to redundancy

Other eligibility criteria may apply

FIND OUT MORE

skillssupport@serco.com

www.serco.com/ssr

Managed by

serco

Co-financed by

Education & Skills
Funding Agency

European Union

European
Social Fund